Champion Football Camp

The Champion Football Camp is a well balanced program for boys ages 8 to 18. The staff includes high school, college and NFL coaches that will teach football skills using a patient and positive approach.

Each camp session covers all aspects of football from basic techniques used in a three point stance to route progressions in a seven on seven drill. There will also be various times throughout the sessions to review instructional tapes, discuss techniques and listen to motivational talks by current NFL assistant coaches and Division I coaches and players.

Please bring cleats (not required) and sneakers. No other equipment is needed. Please bring swimwear and a towel as the pool will be available between practices.

Costs

The fee for the camp is $225.00 and is all inclusive. There are no extra costs. Due to limited space, all applications must be received no later than June 15th to guarantee your reservation. Full payment is due no later than June 15th.

If your application is received after June 15th, it may be accepted if space is available.

Players and Coaches

Players and coaches from the following schools will be in attendance:

- University of Notre Dame
- Rutgers University
- Fordham University
- Columbia University
- Northwestern University
- University of Richmond
- Hofstra University
- Wagner College
- Duke University
- Indiana University
